BOOK SYNOPSIS

When Kates beloved father passes away, she must return to the city to take ownership of his finance company and precious NHL team. To take her mind off of her newfound responsibilities, her crazy best friend, Piper, takes her out. Unfortunately, Kate finds herself in over head when the wild-night leads to a single kiss with a stranger. Only days later, she learns who he truly is: someone completely and utterly off-limits if shes to keep everything shes worked so hard for. Kates quickly led into a whirlwind of secrecy, moral conflict, and outside judgments. With the help of Piper, she finds herself maneuvering through life, protecting her fathers legacy, and finding what love looks like. She learns that fate is something you can never control... no matter the cost.
